

Beyond the classroom: rethinking STEAM education

15 February 2024
Brussels, Belgium

AGENDA

10:00

Registration with coffee

10:30

Welcome address

Ömer Ceylan, COO, Geonardo

10:35

Welcome address

Irina Elena Tiron, Project Adviser, European Research Executive Agency

10:45

Keynote speech: "Imagining sustainable futures: the role of out-of-school STEAM education"

Lucy Avraamidou, President of ESERA, Director of the Center for Learning and Teaching, University of Groningen

11:15

New EOC methodologies: learnings from the OTTER project

Deirdre O'Neill, Assistant Professor in Education, University of Limerick, Ireland

11:45

Coffee Break

12:00

Panel discussion: "The future of EOC: benefits and obstacles"

- Jelena Kajganović, Coordinator, GEO (Moderator)
- Dr. Aravella Zachariou, Chair, UNECE ESD Steering Committee
- Federico Iannuli, Project manager and Researcher, The Lisbon Council
- Zsuzsanna Kray, Science Officer, ESF
- Stephanos Cherouvis, Senior Project Manager, ECSITE

13:00

Lunch

14:00

World Café - Interactive Sessions

- Supporting EOC practices at primary and secondary level
- Pathways to EOC accreditation
- Incorporating technology in EOC activities
- Creating sustainable networks
- From innovative practices to effective change

15:00

Coffee break

15:15

World Café: continuation

16:00

Final remarks and conference closing

This project has received funding from the European Union's research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 101006482.